Welcome

Pacific Aikido Federation (PAF) is hosting the eighteenth annual Aikido Winter Retreat.

This year we again have the opportunity to train with Shiohira Sensei, 7th Dan Shihan. The Winter Retreat will be held in Sonoma County at the CYO Retreat Center near Occidental, Ca. The center is located in a coastal forest surrounded by redwoods. It has a beautiful and spacious lodge with a large training area. Food and sleeping accommodations are provided. This is an opportunity for concentrated Aikido training in a beautiful, natural setting. All Aikido practitioners, regardless of rank or affiliation, are invited to participate.

The retreat will be four days of intensive training from Friday to Monday with 9 aikido classes, 6 zazen sessions (optional), an open mat between classes and 9 meals including a vegetarian option. Directions and the schedule are available at the website.

Parking is limited so please carpool if possible.

Instructor

Shiohira Sensei, 7th Dan Shihan

Began training in Japan over 49 years ago at Waseda University. He was a live-in student at Hombu dojo for one year and studied under Kisshomaru Ueshiba Sensei and all the leading AikiKai World headquarters instructors there at that time. His aikido is also deeply influenced by his study of Zen. He has been teaching Aikido for over 40 years in northern California and is founder and Chief Instructor of the Pacific Aikido Federation.

Shiohira Sensei has been training and teaching Aikido as THE WAY. Several of his students have become Aikido Masters (Shihan) or Zen Masters, and several more advanced ones just continue training. He wants to maintain a dojo where one can be free from distractions, to see things as they truly are and live a fulfilled life.
